BENEFICIARY DESIGNATION: Upon change of ownership, all prior beneficiary designations are revoked. The new Owner(s) must complete the following section to designate a beneficiary of the Contract. If you do not designate a new beneficiary or if this designation is ineffective or otherwise not accepted by Eagle Life before a claim is triggered, proceeds will be paid to the decedent’s estate.

Instructions for Beneficiary Designations:

- All requested information below must be completed for this form to be in good order. This information is used to assist in paying out any death benefit proceeds in the event a claim is triggered.
- When multiple beneficiaries are named, you must indicate the percentage of the proceeds each beneficiary is to receive. Do NOT list a dollar amount. All percentages must total 100%. If no percentages are listed, or if percentages do not equal 100%, proceeds will be divided equally among surviving beneficiaries.
- If there are joint owners, proceeds do not automatically pay to the surviving owner upon the death of the first owner. In order for the surviving owner to be the beneficiary of the Contract, please designate “Surviving Owner” as the primary beneficiary.
- Spousal continuation is only available if the spouse is sole primary beneficiary.
- Do not list classes of beneficiaries (e.g. “My Children”). Instead, list each beneficiary individually.
- If you wish to name additional beneficiaries, please attach a Beneficiary Addendum – Form 3527.

YOU MAY NOT NAME YOUR REPRESENTATIVE AS A PRIMARY OR CONTINGENT BENEFICIARY UNLESS YOUR REPRESENTATIVE IS DIRECTLY RELATED TO YOU.

I/We, the NEW Owner(s) of the Contract, designate the following beneficiary(ies) of the Contract:
